Organization Has Prosperous Year and Increases Its Membership.

Inky, the model boat owned by William Hall, won the first race held at the harbor yesterday in honor of the late King Kalakaua's birthday anniversary. This is an annual event which has survived since two days of rain and although the boats entered in the race yesterday were in the toy class the mariners have long ceased to be youngsters. The principals who participated in the event are all high dignitaries in political circles. Kuhio and the Shamrock, which is owned by George Kruger, the little boat flew before the wind at such a clip that it crew, following in its wake, to set it about at the turn of the course, were left way behind and a launch had to go over and overhaul it. Tony of San E. A. C. Long, Sheriff Jarrett, Daniel Cook, Clarence Casano, Lillian Senator Charles Billingsworth and Joe Makaiwa were interested spectators. Lilihaiahi, Makaiwa and Long acted as judges and Lilihaiahi acted as starter.

The course was from a line between the Young Brothers' boathouse and the lighthouse, out around the belt buoy at the entrance to Honolulu harbor and back to the starting point. There were no entries. The boats all started at minute past eleven o'clock yesterday morning. The Dusky finished at 12:25, making her time one hour and forty-five minutes. The Mystic, ended by Friday, the general utility man at the Myrtle boathouse, came in at 12:26, covering the course in one hour and twenty-five minutes, or one minute behind Dusky, the winner. Not far behind Dusky, entered by T. Makaiwa, was the Wahikauhau, finishing at 12:49. The fourth to finish was the Kalahau, entered by Ekela. She was just two seconds behind the Wahikauhau, finishing at 12:49:20, which was forty-four minutes and twenty seconds behind the leader.

A CORRECTION AS WELL AS EXPLANATION

Trooper Franklin of the Fifth Cavalry has a graph. It is a fine graph. It is a warm graph.

Franklin boxed a four-round draw with Major Kurn of the Fighting Fifths at Leilehua on Tuesday night and the original report of the scene had it that Franklin who boxed was Major Franklin who left Honolulu for San Francisco some time ago to be in time for the opening of the hot dog game in the latter burg.

In the account of the proceedings in The Advertiser, Trooper Franklin was credited with holding the world's pugilistic record, in time of which the Ed is the undisputed holder.

Major Franklin performed a number of remarkable gastronomical feats at the free lunch counters along the local High during his sojourn here. He was duly responsible for the introduction to local boozers of the automobile bacon bean jar closer which was operated by the gentleman behind the bar. The utilization of the device by which a plate of sandwiches could be secured in the false bottom of a lunch case in the approach of danger by the bars under pressing a button, was also another with the festive Ed's stay in the Hawaiian metropolis.

Major Franklin, when last heard of in San Francisco, was married with Crosby, O'Brien and the Congo cases for the amateur slinging championship of the Pacific Slope.
